Hello everyone! Welcome to the official programme for MedSoc Freshers' Fair 2021!

Taking place on the 14th October at Downing Place URC, we are extremely excited to be able to hold MedSoc Freshers' Fair in person this year!

One of our goals this year is to really connect with all the Medicine-related societies in Cambridge. Unfortunately, we are unable to fit all of these amazing societies in one room (believe me - the amount of human tetris attempted is feat). As a result, we wanted to put together a document where you can find out about them and learn about how to get involved... I hope we have achieved it!!

This list is definitely not exhaustive, but it should give you a good idea of where to start!

Have fun!

Balin
(she/her)

MedSoc Vice President '21-'22

We are forever grateful to our sponsors for giving us the opportunity to put on the events that we do. They themselves offer some great products and memberships that are definitely worth checking out!

Our sponsors for 2021-22 are:

INTRODUCTION

CAMBRIDGE UNIVERSITY MEDICAL SOCIETY

Cambridge
MedSoc

WELCOME TO MEDSOC!

We are Cambridge Uni's Medical Society, more commonly just referred to as MedSoc! We represent all pre-clinical Medicine students, including those on the CGCM course.

What do we do? Almost everything! We hold regular events, including our weekly Academic Speaker Series with prominent researchers, healthcare professionals and industry specialists. This term, our theme is "New Beginnings" and features topics such as paediatrics, neonatal health and brand new research!

As well as academic events, we also hold multiple socials and ents a term. Whether you enjoy going out, debating, quizzes, karaoke or sports, we will have an event for you! We also offer Welfare support to all pre-clinical Medicine students, regardless of if you are a MedSoc member or not. If you have any questions or concerns at all, please do get in touch with welfare@cambridgemedsoc.com! One of our main responsibilities as a committee is to ensure that your voices are heard by Faculty of Biology. We represent you on meetings and panels, and generally act as a point of contact between staff and students.

Lastly, would this even be an info section if we didn't mention MedSoc Ball? MedSoc Ball is one of the biggest and hyped events of the year. Our 2021 Ball was a resounding success (we managed to empty Revs of over £30k worth of drinks...) and we would love to see you at our next one in Lent!!

If you want to keep up with us, you can find us at cambridgemedsoc.com or follow us on Facebook, Instagram, Twitter and Tiktok!

HI, WE'RE CLINSOC!

As a society, we represent all clinical students to the Clinical School, and work to improve communication between clinical students and Faculty. Our role involves working behind the scenes on various projects and liaising with faculty to improve Clinical School life by representing your views. To do this, we send out surveys on a regular basis to collect information and opinions on specific matters and relay this information to the Clinical School Faculty. Some of the projects we're currently working on include liaising with Clinical School to produce a robust way for students to report issues or incidents they encounter throughout their time at the Clinical School and on placement, as well as providing direct feedback on placements. Additionally, we are working to increase diversity throughout the medical course.

In addition, we act as a calling point for societies and students wanting to communicate with each other, and also organise some fun activities of our own, such as the inaugural StraVarsity held earlier this year.

We also update students on any important work we are doing in the weekly ClinSoc bulletins, which also include details on clinical/academic opportunities, as well as more light-hearted, fun interest events!

Check out our Committee page (<https://www.clinsoc.co.uk/about/#committee>) to find out who is in charge of the different aspects of ClinSoc as well as their contact details.

UNIVERSITY
CLINICAL SOCIETY

ACADEMIC

CAMBRIDGE HAS MANY ACADEMIC SOCIETIES, HELPING YOU GET INVOLVED IN RESEARCH AND LEARN MORE ABOUT DIFFERENT MEDICAL SPECIALTIES.

AI IN MEDICINE

- Aims: Provide education about Artificial Intelligence in Medicine and spark interest in the field.
- Plans: Speakers. Socials. Newsletters with advancements in medical AI. Basic coding events.
- Contact: pp445@cam.ac.uk

BUILDING BRIDGES IN MEDICAL SCIENCES

- Building Bridges in Medical Sciences is a society that brings together scientists from different disciplines, career stages and countries. We believe in the need for interdisciplinary approaches to tackle the biomedical research and global health challenges of the 21st century.
- Joining the BBMS society provides a fantastic opportunity for pre-clinical medics to explore biomedical research and gain early insights into the world of academia.
- Contact: ak2305@cam.ac.uk

CAMBRIDGE EMERGENCY MEDICINE SOCIETY

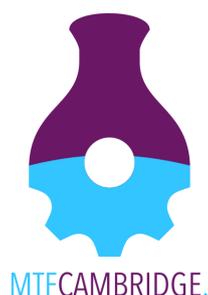

- Whether you are planning a career as an Emergency Medic, want to be on the ball when that critically ill patient comes onto your ward, or just want to go to talks about explosions and fire, we at CEMS aim to put on events that you simply don't want to miss.
- This year, we are planning to run a series of events specifically for preclinical medics, linking what you learn in subjects such as FAB and HNA to clinical cases.
- Contact: cubluelightsociety@gmail.com
- Click here to sign up!

CAMBRIDGE MEDICAL EDUCATION SOCIETY

- EdMedSoc is a clinical student society centred around medical education of Year 1 – 6 students at the University of Cambridge. We run a number of successful schemes and events to provide many opportunities for student-led teaching and learning, to both enhance learning and development as a medical educator.
- Provides a weekly pre-clinical lecture series; tailored A level catch-up teaching series in preparation for incoming 1st year students and MBPhD introductory sessions.
- Contact: ejsl2@cam.ac.uk

CAMBRIDGE MEDTECH FOUNDATION

- After being founded in 2018 in Cambridge, we are a new society within the field of medical technology, innovation and education.
- Throughout the year, we are running an Innovation Programme to introduce students to medical device development, starting mid-October. We are also organising exciting MEDx speaker events and provide networking opportunities for MedTech enthusiasts.
- If you are interested come to our events or contact us, we're always looking for enthusiastic people to join our committee!
- Contact: cambridge@medtechfoundation.org
